

OMA informs regarding the effect of the suspension of operations of Magnicharters

Monterrey, Mexico, June 12, 2008 -- Grupo Aeroportuario del Centro Norte, known as OMA, informs the market regarding the effect of the temporary suspension of operations by Magnicharters, ordered by the Ministry of Communications and Transportation (SCT).

The SCT, through the General Directorate of Civil Aviation (DGAC), suspended operations of Magnicharters on June 10th, at 5pm. The DGAC stated that "the company cannot provide sufficient guarantees for the safety of its passengers" and "will have 90 calendar days to resolve the problems identified, and upon doing so, resume operations."

Until the suspension, Magnicharters operated 16 domestic routes, none exclusively, from OMA airports in Acapulco, Mazatlán, Zihuatanejo, and Monterrey. During the first five months of 2008, Magnicharters accounted for 1.8% of OMA's total terminal passenger traffic.
