

OMA reaffirms its commitment to Social Responsibility

Monterrey, Mexico, March 13, 2009—Mexican airport operator Grupo Aeroportuario del Centro Norte, S.A.B. de C.V., known as OMA (NASDAQ: OMAB, BMV:OMA), announces that it has received, for the second year in a row, recognition as a socially responsible company. The recognition as an “Empresa Socialmente Responsable (ESR) 2009” is awarded by the Mexican Center for Philanthropy (CEMEFI) and the Alliance for Corporate Social Responsibility (AliaRSE). The awards ceremony took place in Mexico City yesterday.

Rubén López, the CEO of OMA said, “Receiving this recognition for the second time reaffirms our commitment to corporate social responsibility, and spurs us to pursue actions with an ethical foundation and projects that contribute to the well being of our people and to the communities where we have a presence.”

As part of the certification process, OMA was evaluated on 120 indicators for Corporate Social Responsibility in four areas: quality of life, business ethics, community ties, and care for and preservation of the environment.

For OMA, the vision of corporate responsibility is incorporated in all our operations and processes, and includes a mix of policies, practices and actions with explicit commitments to:

- Our employees and their families
- The communities where we operate
- Everyone who uses our airports and our business partners
- The environment
