

4 new routes will start operations in Monterrey Airport, connecting Nuevo León to more regions in México.

- Monterrey International Airport boosts regional connectivity with the opening of four new routes operated by Volaris.
- These new routes start operations in July, offering different frequencies throughout the week.

Monterrey, Nuevo León, June 7, 2023 - OMA, in collaboration with the Secretary of Tourism of Nuevo León and Volaris, is pleased to announce the opening of four new routes from Monterrey Airport to four destinations in Mexico: Tapachula, Puerto Escondido, Culiacán, and La Paz. These routes are part of the 40 new connections that Volaris has added to its network.

The opening of these routes boosts air connectivity in Nuevo León by offering more flights to passengers, promoting tourism, and fostering economic development throughout the country.

The flight to Culiacán will depart from Monterrey Airport daily, while the route to La Paz will operate twice a week, on Thursdays and Sundays. The direct route to Puerto Escondido will operate on Sundays, and finally, the flight to Tapachula will depart on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays.

"We are thrilled to announce four new routes in Monterrey. This boost in expanding air connectivity between Nuevo León and various destinations across the country promises to open up more possibilities for residents of the state and tourists who seek to enjoy its attractions, as well as for those with business objectives in the region. This is in line with our commitment to continue fostering economic, tourism, and commercial development in our country," commented Holger Blankenstein, Executive Vice President of Volaris.

"An increasing number of destinations are being added to Monterrey International Airport air network. The Ministry of Tourism is working on very specific strategies for the promotion and development of the destination, which will undoubtedly boost the entire industry. Excellent news for Volaris, I am sure it will be a great success," added Maricarmen Martínez Villarreal, Secretary of Tourism of the State of Nuevo León.

"We continue to boost our connectivity network developing routes to key destinations that generate tourism and business opportunities through an accessible offering for passengers," said Ricardo Dueñas, CEO of OMA.

Starting in July, Volaris flights will operate on the following days of the week:

Routes	Frequency
Culiacán- Monterrey	Daily
La Paz- Monterrey	Thursday-Sunday
Monterrey- Puerto Escondido	Sunday
Monterrey- Tapachula	Monday, Wednesday, Friday

OMA as part of VINCI Airports, develops positive mobility from its airports and will continue to seize expansion opportunities. Our goal is to boost air connectivity and promote the economic development of the region through collaboration with strategic partners, airlines, and entities that allow us to enhance the travel experience.

About OMA

Grupo Aeroportuario del Centro Norte, S.A.B. de C.V., known as OMA, operates 13 international airports in nine states of central and northern Mexico. OMA's airports serve Monterrey, Mexico's third largest metropolitan area, the tourist destinations of Acapulco, Mazatlán, and Zihuatanejo, and nine other regional centers and border cities. OMA also operates the NH Collection Hotel inside Terminal 2 of the Mexico City airport and the Hilton Garden Inn at the Monterrey airport. OMA employs over 1,200 persons in order to offer passengers and clients airport and commercial services in facilities. OMA is listed on the Mexican Stock Exchange (OMA) and on the NASDAQ Global Select Market (OMAB). Since December 2022, OMA is part of VINCI Airports, the world's leading private airport operator.

Webpage <http://ir.oma.aero>

Twitter <http://twitter.com/OMAeropuertos>

Facebook <https://www.facebook.com/OMAeropuertos>

OMA cotiza

